DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND REHABILITATION
SELECTION SUPPORT SECTION
ATTENTION: MTA EXAM
2201 BROADWAY
SACRAMENTO, CA 95818-2572

Do not send the MTA Examination Application (OPOS 20A) form to the State Personnel Board (SPB). Standard State of California examination application (STD 678) forms will NOT be accepted.

MTA Examination Application forms can be obtained at the following locations: Employment Development Department (EDD) offices, Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's Testing Centers and Institutions or the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's Central Personnel Office.

MTA Examination Application forms may also be obtained by electronically requesting a form using the electronic mail address: recruit@cdcr.ca.gov or by contacting our toll-free job line at 1-866-232-JOBS.

THE SELECTION PROCESS

Candidates must be successful in each of the examination and selection components listed below to be eligible for an MTA appointment. Photo identification is required for participation in some of the selection components. Failure to complete any of the required forms or failure to appear for the scheduled components will result in elimination from the examination. All information submitted for consideration at every phase of the selection process must be accurate, complete and truthful and will be subject to verification. Any inaccuracy and/or omission may be considered intentional and may be cause for elimination from the examination and/or subsequent certification list.

EXAMINATION COMPONENT

1) EDUCATION AND EXPERIENCE (E&E) EVALUATION - WEIGHTED 100%

This examination utilizes an evaluation of each candidate's experience and education. All candidates completed the E&E as part of the application and were scored on: 1) knowledge of first-aid procedures and simple therapeutic measures; uses and effects of medicines and narcotics; the care, cleaning and maintenance of patient care equipment; practical bedside nursing procedures; and medical terminology and hospital routine and practices and 2) ability to follow orders, interpret and enforce institutional rules and regulations with firmness, tact and impartiality; control, direct and instruct inmates or youthful offenders individually and in groups; perform routine practical bedside nursing procedures; act quickly in emergencies; analyze situations accurately; communicate effectively; and keep records and prepare reports. This is a competitive examination; therefore, your overall qualifications are rated as compared with the qualifications of other competitors. In order to obtain a position on the eligible list, a minimum rating of 70.00% must be attained.

ADDITIONAL SELECTION COMPONENTS

1) INITIAL INVESTIGATIVE INTERVIEW - PASS/FAIL

Candidates are required to bring their completed Personal History Statement (PHS) and other required documents when they appear for the Vision Screening and Physical Abilities Test (PAT). All documents will be collected prior to the participation in the either test. The documents are reviewed to ensure that minimum qualifications are met and the candidates are suitable for peace officer employment. The documents are also reviewed for completeness.

2) VISION SCREENING - PASS/FAIL

A vision screening is conducted to determine the candidate's distant and color vision. To be successful in the vision test, the candidate's visual acuity must be no worse than 20/200 in each eye and correctable to 20/20 in each eye. Color vision must be adequate to successfully perform the job as measured by the Ishihara or Farnsworth tests. Candidates who do not pass the vision screening, and/or do not provide a doctor's verification that the vision standards are met, will be eliminated from the examination. Candidates have six months from the date of the written test or participation in their first selection component to meet the vision requirements. Soft contact lenses and corrective surgery information is available on CDRC's website at www.cdrc.ca.gov

3) PHYSICAL ABILITIES TEST (PAT) - PASS/FAIL

The Physical Abilities Test consists of two parts:

1. The Risk Assessment determines if it is safe for you to take the PAT. It consists of a screening of your current health status; a reading of your resting blood pressure (must be 148/90 or lower); a reading of your resting heart rate (must be below 105 beats per minute); and, a cardiac risk assessment that includes: age, height and weight, percentage of body fat, blood pressure, family history, smoking history, and level of physical activity. If you fail the Risk Assessment, you will be required to provide a Physician's approval to participate in the PAT.
2. Five physically demanding performance tests to evaluate your overall fitness to perform required job duties.
 - Test 1) PEDOL – Three-minute bicycle ergometer test with tension applied according to body weight. Blood pressure, heart rate and ECG will be monitored throughout the test. This test can be compared to a maximal stress test for individuals in below average condition.
 - Test 2) TRUNK STRENGTH – Requires the candidate to exert a maximal force against a cable tensiometer. Flexion: abdominal muscles (89 lbs.). Extension: Back extensor muscles (109 lbs.).
 - Test 3) GRIP STRENGTH – A hand grip dynamometer test designed to measure the candidate's grip strength (34 kg).
 - Test 4) DYNAMIC ARM – Utilizing the hands and arms, sitting on the floor behind the bike, the candidate must pedal a bicycle ergometer with 2.5 kps of resistance. The candidate must complete 45 revolutions in one minute.
 - Test 5) DYNAMIC LEG – The candidate must pedal at a rapid pace for one minute with 3.0 kps or resistance and complete 70 revolutions.

You will be given three attempts to pass the PAT within a six-month period. A passing score on the PAT is valid for one year and must be current at the time of appointment. More detailed information is available on CDRC's website at www.cdrc.ca.gov

4) PEACE OFFICER PSYCHOLOGICAL EVALUATION (POPE) - PASS/FAIL

The POPE includes two written tests taken concurrently with the background investigation. Candidates cleared in the background investigation will be interviewed by a psychologist to determine that the candidate is free of any emotional or mental limitation, which could restrict him/her from safely performing the essential functions of the position. An approved POPE is valid for one year and must be current at the time of appointment. Candidates not cleared by the POPE cannot reapply for this position for 12 months from the date of disqualification.

5) BACKGROUND INVESTIGATION - PASS/FAIL

The background investigation is conducted to determine if the candidate is of good moral character and suitable to assume the duties and responsibilities of an MTA. The employment history, military experience, educational background, history as a law abiding citizen (including contacts with law enforcement personnel, detentions, arrests, convictions, etc.), motor vehicle operation records, and other aspects of each candidate's history will be reviewed.

6) PREEMPLOYMENT MEDICAL EXAMINATION (PEM) PASS/FAIL

The PEM includes, but is not limited to: a urinalysis, complete blood count, blood chemistry panel, VDRL, a general physical examination, and other tests, if necessary. Any limitation, which restricts a person from safely performing the essential functions of the position, may constitute basis for elimination from the certification list. An approved PEM is valid for one year and must be current at the time of appointment.

7) ASSIGNMENT PROCESS

Applicants who receive conditional job offers and who have successfully completed all selection components will be assigned to institutions based on departmental need.

GENERAL INFORMATION

EXAMINATION LOCATIONS: Examinations will be scheduled at either the Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation's Testing Centers listed below, or off-site locations depending on the needs of the Department. VETERANS PREFERENCE CREDITS will be granted on the OPEN employment list established from this examination. Veteran status is verified by the SPB. To obtain veterans preference, submit an Application for Veterans Preference for California State Civil Service Examinations form, SPB-1093 (6/00), directly to the SPB. The SPB 1093 (6/00) forms are available from the SPB and the Department of Veterans Affairs. Additionally, candidates may pick up an SPB 1093 (6/00) form when they appear for the written test. Once veterans preference eligibility is verified, individuals will receive a letter from the SPB. Each candidate is required to mail this letter to the Selection Center where he/she took the written test. Candidates must submit this letter within six months of their written test date to obtain Veterans preference credits. Veterans preference credits are added as follows: 10 points for veterans, widows or widowers of veterans, and spouses of 100% disabled veterans; and 15 points for disabled veterans. Employees who have gained permanent State civil service status are not eligible to receive veterans preference credits. Permanent State civil service status means the status of an employee who is lawfully retained in his/her position after completion of the applicable probationary period. This includes permanent intermittent, part-time, and full-time appointments. In addition, individuals who at any time achieved permanent State civil service status and subsequently resigned or were dismissed from State civil service, are not eligible to receive veterans preference credits.

CAREER CREDITS will not be given in this examination.

TESTING PERIOD: Applicants may only participate in the education and experience evaluation portion of the examination only once per testing period. The testing periods for this exam are January 1 through June 30 and July 1 through December 31.

ELIGIBLE LIST INFORMATION: Names of successful competitors are merged into the list in order of the score received in the examination. List eligibility expires two years after it is established.

THE DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONS AND REHABILITATION reserves the right to revise the examination plan to better meet the needs of the Department if the circumstances under which this examination was planned change. Such revision will be in accordance with civil service laws and rules and all competitors will be notified.

FELONY DISQUALIFICATION: You are disqualified from being employed as a peace officer if: (1) You have been convicted of a felony, in this state or any other state; (2) you have been convicted of any offense in any other state which would have been a felony if committed in California; (3) you have been charged with a felony and adjudged by a superior court to be mentally incompetent; (4) you have been adjudged addicted or in danger of becoming addicted to narcotics, convicted, and committed to a State institution. If you have been convicted of a felony, you may be allowed to participate in this examination, if your conviction(s): (1) has/have been sealed under Penal Code Section 851.7, 851.8, 1203.45, and Health and Safety Code Section 11351.5; (2) has/have been expunged or is/are expungeable pursuant to Health and Safety Code Section 11361.5 regarding marijuana offenses; (3) was/were stipulated or designated to be a lesser included offense of marijuana possession under Health and Safety Code Section 11557 or 11366.

TDD is a telecommunications device used by the hearing impaired and may be reached by calling TDD phone (800) 735-2929 or voice phone at (800) 735-2922.

DRUG FREE WORKPLACE: It is the objective of the State of California to achieve a drug-free workplace. Any applicant for State employment will be expected to behave in accordance with this objective because the use of drugs is inconsistent with the law of the State, the rules governing State civil service, and the special trust placed in public servants.

AN EQUAL EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER: The Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation offers equal opportunity to ALL regardless of race, color creed, national origin, ancestry, sex, marital status, disability, religious or political affiliation, age, or sexual orientation.
